

I believe it would be a gross error to allow greater consolidaton of media ownership in our country. There is already a loss of diversity and an unhealthy concentration of "media muscle" as it is.